TEXTBOOKS

Peter Ladefoged and Keith Johnson (2011), A Course in Phonetics, 6th ed. Boston: Wadsworth.

Henning Reetz and Allard Jongman (2009), Phonetics: Transcription, Production, Acoustics and Perception, Chichester, UK: Wiley/Blackwell.

Both of these textbooks are optional (but highly recommended!) for this course. Any further readings will be announced and made available during the course of the semester.

Discussion sessions - It is relatively easy to learn the basic principles of phonetics (and phonetic transcription), but you will only become better at working with those principles through practice. Lots and lots of practice. Therefore, each Friday will be devoted to a review and application of the material covered during the lecture sections that week. During these discussion sessions you will have an opportunity to practice your skills at phonetic transcription, work on in-class phonetic analysis projects, and to discuss the assigned reading(s) for that week.

Academic Accommodations	"Freedom of Information & Privacy" Act
It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre, please contact their office at 403.220.8237. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. You are also required to discuss your needs with your instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of this course.	Assignments and/or portfolios returned to a class: those not picked up by students will be retained by G.S.E.A. for three months from the date of posting of final grades, and then confidentially shredded. Final Examinations: these will be retained by G.S.E.A. for one year from the end of the month in which the exam period falls, and then confidentially shredded.
