Extra credit: Optional; 0.25% per eligible activity, up to a maximum of 8 activities

There will be no final exam in this course.

Active class participation: Regularly participating in class Zoom sessions constitutes active participation. Class sessions are your primary venue for practicing and speaking Modern Standard Arabic, and speaking is one of the skills that this course develops. As such, regular attendance and participation are key to success in this course. Participation includes joining the Zoom session, following instructions given, speaking up during discussions and during activities in breakout rooms, and volunteering to ask and answer questions. Failure to abide by the Zoom class etiquette and guidelines listed above will result in a deduction to the participation grade.

Homework: Weekly homework assignments (typically 2-3 drills per week) will be due each week by Friday at midnight, submitted either through the Smart Sparrow website or to the D2L homework Dropbox for that week. Homework is graded for completion, timeliness, and demonstrating understanding of the material. Homework will be listed on the weekly schedule available on D2L.

Vocabulary quizzes: Six vocabulary quizzes will take place during the semester via D2L. Quizzes are designed to take a maximum of 10 minutes each but will have a time limit of 15 minutes each. The lowest quiz score will be dropped. Each quiz will consist of six multiple choice questions; students will be asked to select the vocabulary word that best completes the sentence. Students may use their textbooks and class notes. Consulting other resources during the quizzes (such as online translation tools and other people) is not allowed. Students may choose when during the 24-hour period (midnight to midnight) to take each quiz; see the schedule of dates above.

Tests: There will be a test on each of the three chapters of al-Kitaab that we study. The tests will be made accessible on D2L. Students will write answers to the test questions by typing or handwriting, then submit the answers to a D2L dropbox. Tests are designed to take a maximum of 50 minutes each but will have a time limit of 75 minutes each. Students may use their textbooks and class notes. Consulting other resources during tests (such as online translation tools and other people) is not allowed. Students may choose when during the 24-hour period (midnight to midnight) to take each test; see the schedule of dates above.

Presentations: Students will do two oral presentations during the semester. Students will have a choice of topics and a choice between presenting live (over Zoom) or submitting a recorded presentation to D2L.

Writing assignments: Students will write 100+ words on a specified topic and then submit their work to a D2L dropbox. Students may use their textbooks and class notes. Consulting other resources (such as online translation tools and other people) is not allowed.

Cultural portfolio: Two times during the semester, students will write an account of, and reflection on, an activity they have done that relates to Arabic-speaking cultures (250+ words). Students may write in any combination of Arabic and English that they choose, and this writing will be submitted to a D2L dropbox.

Extra credit: Eligible activities will be announced via D2L during the semester. Eligible activities may include Arabic conversation hour, guest lectures, and other activities that enhance and strengthen your knowledge of Arabic language and/or Arab cultures.

INTEGRITY AND CONDUCT

All members of the University community have a responsibility to familiarize themselves with the Statement on Principles of Conduct, and to comply with the University of Calgary Code of Conduct and Non-Academic Misconduct policy and procedures (available at: http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html).

Academic misconduct
1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:
   a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);
   b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
   c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
   d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.”

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.
3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may not be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf) and requirements of the Copyright Act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY (FOIP) ACT

Graded assignments will be retained by the Department for three months and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Final examinations will be kept for one calendar year and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Said material is exclusively available to the student and to the department staff requiring to examine it. Please see https://www.ucalgary.ca/legalservices/foip for complete information on the disclosure of personal records.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

It is the student’s responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The student accommodation policy can be found at: https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/access/prospective-students/academic-accommodations.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities (https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities.pdf.)

Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their Instructor or the Department Head/Dean or to the designated contact person in their Faculty.
