DESCRIPTION

Apprentissage des structures grammaticales et logiques du français contemporain avec lectures de morceaux choisis de textes de la francophonie mondiale. Mise en pratique des structures acquises.

OBJECTIVES

Le cours propose des bases essentielles de la grammaire par le biais de textes variés (littéraires, culturels, journalistiques, etc.). Des films et des chansons seront également utilisés pour illustrer les structures grammaticales examinées en classe.

Plus spécifiquement, le cours portera sur les points suivants :

- Étude des parties clefs du discours : pronoms COD, adverbes, articles, adjectifs, verbes pronominaux ;
- Étude des temps et modes : présent, passé composé, imparfait, plus-que-parfait, passé simple, impératif, subjonctif, infinitif ;
- Étude du genre et du nombre ;
- Comparatif et superlatif ;
- Acquisition de vocabulaire.

Le cours comporte deux volets complémentaires et obligatoires : un volet théorique (le cours magistral) et un volet pratique (les TP), dont l'objectif est de faciliter l'implication des étudiants dans l'approfondissement des connaissances acquises durant le cours. Ce volet sera renforcé par au moins 10 visites obligatoires au Centre français.

La bonne marche de ce cours et l'atteinte de ces objectifs exigent que les étudiant(e)s prennent en charge leur apprentissage ce qui veut dire : une participation active à toutes les séances magistrales ainsi qu'aux ateliers de travaux pratiques (TP), une étude quotidienne sérieuse de la matière vue dans ce cours et la fréquentation du Centre français.

PREREQUISITE

FREN 213 or Consent of the Department.

OUTCOMES

À la fin de ce cours, l'étudiant saura: reconnaître et utiliser les parties essentielles du système verbal français ; reconnaître la nature et les fonctions de plusieurs parties clefs du discours et communiquer plus aisément grâce, notamment, à un nouveau bagage lexical acquis en cours de formation.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:

- a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);
- b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
- c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or

School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted."

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.
