DESCRIPTION
What are the moral, political, and philosophical implications of representing violence and suffering in art? This course approaches this question through an in-depth study of the representation of fascism, anti-Semitism, and the Holocaust in European and American films from the time of the Nazi regime to the present.

OBJECTIVES
- Students gain familiarity with the historical outlines of the Holocaust and current research on the Holocaust.
- Students gain familiarity with the ways the Holocaust has been depicted in film from the 1940s to the present.
- Students will be introduced to fundamental moral and philosophical questions concerning the representation of violence and suffering.

OUTCOMES
- Students will be able to explain key facts as well as dominant questions and controversies surrounding the Holocaust.
- Students will be able to detect—and comment on—common tropes, trends, and problems in the representation of the Holocaust.
- Students will have the conceptual toolset to reflect and comment on the ethical implications of the depiction of violence and the representation of victimhood in art.

DISTRIBUTION OF GRADES
- Group work and reports on in-class-discussions: 15%
- Analysis paper (1,000 words): 35%

RECOMMENDED TEXTS

COURSE NOTES

Course Expectations:

- Group work and report on in-class-discussion: Each day, students will be asked to discuss questions or complete assignments in groups of three to four students and to produce written statements of 250 words. These statements have to be uploaded to D2L by the end of the day on which they were assigned. They will be graded solely based on completion (word count and the degree to which the response corresponds to the question).

- Quizzes: The quizzes consist of multiple-choice questions and will test knowledge and understanding of the lectures and required readings of the respective day. Student complete quizzes on D2L. Quizzes become available at the end of each day, and they can be completed until September 6, 2019 (11:59pm)

- Exam: The exam consists of short-answer questions. Students will be asked to explain topics and critical concepts introduced in the lectures and to apply them to the films shown in class.

- Analysis paper (1,000 words [+/- 10%]): Students write a 1,000-word paper in which they analyze one of the films shown in class to shed further light on a concept or question introduced in the lectures (see detailed instructions on D2L for further information). The paper will be assessed based on the following criteria:
  o Construction of argument (20/35): Does the paper have a clear and specific thesis statement (5)? Does the paper productively discuss counterarguments (5)? Does the paper have a meaningful introduction and conclusion (5)? Are the transitions between the paragraphs clear (5)?
  o Productive and nuanced work with primary and secondary sources (10/35): Does the paper provide evidence for its claims by clear references to primary and/or secondary sources (5)? Does the paper introduce quotations with sufficient clarity (3)? Does the paper include a nuanced discussion of the cited texts (2)?
  o Clarity of writing and form? (5/35): Is there a consistent and transparent citation system (1)? Does the essay comply with standard English grammar and spelling (1)? Is the paper stylistically appropriate (1)? Does the paper have a meaningful title (1)?

Please note that the grade will be lowered by 2 points for every 100 words that essay deviates from the required word count.

All written assignments have to be uploaded to D2L. Please use word documents for all written assignments, and please include your full name in the name of the file.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:
   a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one’s own in an examination or test);
   b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.
While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.”
Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student’s work are taken from external sources;
footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.
2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.
3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.
4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION
All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf) and requirements of the copyright act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY (FOIP) ACT
Graded assignments will be retained by the Department for three months and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Final examinations will be kept for one calendar year and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Said material is exclusively available to the student and to the department staff requiring to examine it. Please see https://www.ucalgary.ca/legalservices/foip for complete information on the disclosure of personal records.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS
It is the student’s responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The student accommodation policy can be found at:
https://www.ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students

Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their Instructor or the Department Head/Dean or to the designated contact person in their Faculty.
FACULTY OF ARTS PROGRAM ADVISING AND STUDENT INFORMATION RESOURCES

Have a question, but not sure where to start? The Arts Students’ Centre is the overall headquarters for undergraduate programs in the Faculty of Arts. The key objective of this office is to connect students with whatever academic assistance they may require.

In addition to housing the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Programs and Student Affairs) and the Associate Dean (Teaching, Learning & Student Engagement), the Arts Students’ Centre is the specific home to:
- Program advising
