Essays: 36 % (3 essays worth 12 % each)

Creative assignment: 10 %

Participation: 20 %

Quizzes 21 % (3 quizzes worth 7 % each)

Homework: There are 13 homework assignments. Homework assesses students' understanding of the assigned readings. Homework has to be submitted on D2L prior to the class meeting for which it was assigned, and it should be ready at hand during class meetings. Homework will be graded based on completion (a complete assignment answers all questions in grammatically complete German sentences).

Essays: Students write 3 short essays (500 words each, +/- 10%). Essays will be graded based on completion of the task (3% per essay), structure (introduction and conclusion, clear transitions) (3% per essay), vocabulary (appropriate register, variety, and correct usage) (3% per essay), and grammatical structures (variety and correctness) (3% per essay).

Creative writing (500 words, +/- 10%): Students write one fairy tale of their own invention. In its content or narrative form, the fairy tale has to be based on (one of) the fairy tales collected by Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm. The creative assignment will be assessed based on the following criteria: completion of the task (4%), vocabulary (correct usage) (3%), grammatical structures (correctness) (3%).

Quizzes: Three quizzes test students' grasp of grammar introduced in class. Quizzes will be available on D2L for at least 24 hours prior to the due date (see detailed class schedule on D2L).

Participation: Students are asked to participate in class discussions by sharing results of their homework and/or providing additional comments and questions. To receive a perfect grade, students must make 20 substantive contributions in German over the course of the semester. Students may choose to supplement their contributions with short reflective statements (c. 100-200 words each, in German) about individual class meetings. Each of these statements will be worth up to 3 points (to achieve a perfect score, the writing must be clear, and the statement must demonstrate familiarity with the content of the lecture, assigned reading, or class discussion). These statements have to be emailed to the instructor no later than 48 hours after the meeting on which they comment.

PLEASE NOTE:

- All writing assignments (except for the reflective statements contributing to the participation component) have to be uploaded to D2L. Please use WORD DOCUMENTS for all written assignments, and please include your full name in the name of the file.
- For each 24 hours that an assignment is late, one point will be deducted. Please reach out to the instructor prior to the due date to arrange accommodations if appropriate. Any assignment that is not submitted will be graded at zero points.
