ASSESSMENT

Evaluation:

Homework Assignments 30%
Test 1 Thurs Feb 3rd (Units 8-13) 15%
Test 2 Thurs Mar 3rd (Units 14-19) 15%
Cree Project & Presentation Thurs Apr 7th 30% (Written 10%, Presentation 20%)
Class Participation, Flash Cards 10% (Participation 5%, Flash cards 5%)

Homework Assignments: Weekly homework assignments will be due each week at the start of class time. Homework will be graded for completion and correctness. Late homework will lose one point for each day that it is late, if you have not helped your instructor to understand that your work will be submitted late (thus homework that is marked out of 10 and due on Thursday February 10, will be marked out of 9, if it is handed in on Friday February 11)

Tests: Written tests will evaluate students’ knowledge of the Cree vocabulary and grammatical structures practiced and learned lessons on which the tests are based. In addition, the tests will be cumulative, such that materials studied and learned on Test 1 can appear on Test 2, and so on. The tests will be 45 minutes each and will take place during class time in the first half of the class period.

Class Participation: class sessions are your primary opportunity for practicing and speaking Cree, and regular participation will be emphasized in the course. Participation includes speaking up during class sessions and volunteering to ask and answer questions.

Flash Cards: As with Introductory Cree Part 2, flash cards will continue to be required. Please ask your instructor if you have questions about what should be on the flash cards.

Introductory Cree Project and Presentation: In the last week of the term, students will give short presentations. They will be done alone / with a partner. (If with a partner, students will earn individual marks.) Students will be assessed on presentation, pronunciation, grammar, and creativity. Further details will be provided in person. If you experience speech anxiety, you will have the option to give your presentation as a video. The same criteria mentioned above will be applied. Please confirm with your instructor if you will give your presentation in person or by video at least two weeks before the day when the presentation is due to be given.
