DESCRIPTION

Basic concepts of modern Japanese. Reading and writing of characters, essentials of grammar, basic vocabulary, and oral drills on normal speech patterns. JPNS207 is a second course of our Japanese Program (continuing from JPNS205) and covers Lesson 7 to Lesson 12 of Genki I (The Japan Times) textbook. Required computer assisted learning. This course may not be repeated for credit.

[Prerequisites]
Japanese 205 or consent of the Department

[Note] All university level prerequisites for Japanese language courses must be met with a grade of "C-" or higher. Students may be required to complete different requirements if the assessment of their language backgrounds shows that this is appropriate.

OBJECTIVES

Students will build the acquisition of basic Japanese-language ability by developing the grammatical accuracy, comprehension and communicative ability in the four basic language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) in Japanese while increasing an awareness of general knowledge of Japanese culture raised in their language learning. Since our courses are focused on oral communication skills, students who complete Beginners’ Japanese courses (JPNS205 and JPNS207) can speak simple Japanese everyday phrases and play a good role as icebreaker to ease communication in various occasions, such as business meetings with Japanese speakers. Also, students will be able to deal with everyday incidents while traveling in Japan and to enjoy numerous interactions with local people in Japan.

OUTCOMES

After successfully completing Japanese 207 (Genki I L7 to L12), the students will be able to:
- Handle simple situations dealing with basic personal and family information.
- Express thoughts and opinions regarding simple daily life.
- Talk about and comment on past events; hold a basic conversion on future plans.
- Recognize 87 additional Kanji, and learn 145 Kanji in total.

[General Course Information]

- Lectures will be delivered synchronously (via ZOOM) on Mon/Wed/Fri for this course. These lectures will give students opportunities to have further understanding of the new materials, practice new grammar points and review grammar points from previous lecture by speaking and listening to the instructor as well as interacting with other students.
- Synchronous Zoom lectures will not be recorded.
- Laboratory classes are delivered asynchronously and 120-minute/week task will be assigned.
- Asynchronous activities and tasks will be assigned to replace 90-minute long lecture/week. These may include exercise quizzes, viewing videos, listening to recordings, submitting your responses, practicing other learning exercises (grammar, listening & reading comprehensions, speaking, reading and writing), group discussion and self-reflective assessment log.
- D2L will be used to distribute all course materials and information. It is the students’ responsibility to check all course related information on D2L and complete all the tasks in time.

[Attendance and Participation]

- Preparation for the coming lectures (including homework and daily practice), regular attendance, and active participation during the lecture are essential to complete this course successfully since quizzes, tests, homework, assignments, and projects are all aligned to class activities to maximize one’s language learning. During the lectures, students are strongly encouraged to keep their cameras turned on. They are also required to turn on the microphones when they practice speaking, make voluntary remarks/responses, or participate in the pair/group activities.

[Guidelines for tests/quizzes/assignments]

Unit Tests
3 unit tests are closed textbook (via D2L quiz) and open for a regular test length + an additional 50% extension (Ex. 50min + 25min = 75min) to allow for any technology issues that may arise. Students can complete each test only one time each for the set test length within a 24-hour access window. Make-ups and extensions of the accessing time are NOT allowed, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth.

Quizzes
These quizzes are closed textbook (via D2L quiz). Once you start a quiz, they will have to be completed within a short, fixed time limit. However, you have an unlimited number of attempts within 24-hour (or more) access window. Make-ups and extensions of the accessing time are NOT allowed, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth.

Oral/Speaking Test
Oral/Speaking test is a solo interview-style test and will be scheduled outside of Zoom lecture time by appointments. More details will be provided later in the course. Make-ups and alternative date/time are NOT allowed, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth.

Projects
These 2 projects are take-home and Synchronous class projects. Project 1 has two main components (writing assignment/video presentation). All these tasks must be handed in by the deadline via D2L, Padlet, Bookcreator or Flipgrid (Video instructions will be available on D2L). The extension of the deadlines is NOT allowed, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth. Late submissions will be accepted for “Projects” only up to 2 days after the due date and is subject to 25% deduction. Any late submission beyond 25% deduction period will result in a grade of zero, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth.

Other asynchronous tasks (Including "Lab" assignments)
All other asynchronous tasks will be graded on a pass/fail basis and must be handed in by the deadline via D2L or other type of tools like Google Forms. Late submissions are not accepted and will result in a grade of zero, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth.
[Policy in case of missed or late]

When you are missing or can’t complete any graded coursework such as tests, quizzes, assignments, and homework in time with a legitimate reason, you must communicate with your course instructor prior to the event or the deadline. Failing to do that will result in no make-up or extension.

[Course expectations]

- It is YOUR responsibility to check the class schedule and all the information on D2L frequently so as not to miss any upcoming quizzes, tests, projects, and assignments.
- It is YOUR responsibility to read well and follow the assignment instructions provided on D2L. Submissions without following instructions will result in a grade of zero or some deduction.
- It is YOUR responsibility to keep up with what you have missed during the class (including assignments) from your own absence.
- This is a fast-paced (6-week) course. On top of regular lecture time, you are required to spend about 3.5 hours/week to complete all the assigned lab and other asynchronous tasks. For your own daily self-study, at least 1-2 hours/day is required to follow this course successfully. Further time commitment may be required to complete projects and special assignments.
- You are required to learn new vocabulary prior to each lesson and the targeted grammar points prior to each class.
- You are required to keep practicing kana, Kanji and new vocabulary on a daily basis.
- You are strongly recommended to use the audio study aid that comes with the textbook/workbook when you self-study. Other study aid materials will be provided in D2L.
- You are strongly encouraged to monitor your learning process in D2L. Self-reflection task might be assigned to improve student’s learning experience.
