COURSE OUTLINE

INSTRUCTOR'S NAME: Darin Flynn

OFFICE HOURS: Wednesdays 9:30-10:30 AM or by appointment (Zoom info in D2L)

E-MAIL: dflynn@ucalgary.ca (I will respond to e-mails within 48 hrs during weekdays)

DESCRIPTION

"Phonology I: Theory and practice of phonological analysis: the classical phoneme; distinctive features and their organisation; methods of analysis; underlying and surface representations; rules and derivations."
(Calendar)

Prerequisite: LING 201 or equivalent

OBJECTIVES

This course focuses on "what", "where" and "when" questions in phonology: what are the basic elements of phonology, what happens to them, where does it happen, and when? (LING 403 focuses on the deeper questions: "why and how does it happen?")

OUTCOMES

On completion of this course, you will have gained insights into language—"what some might call the "human essence," the distinctive qualities of mind that are, so far as we know, unique to man" (Noam Chomsky). In particular, you will know all distinctive phonological features and prosodic elements and be able to figure out their distribution and interactions in spoken languages. You will also better understand the difference between phonology and phonetics. Your general problem-solving skills will also improve.

REQUIRED COURSE MATERIALS

None. Readings will be shared via D2L.

Faculty of Arts

School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

- Attendance is not required but strongly recommended — the exercises practiced in class will help you succeed on assignments and exams. Note, too, that my in-class exercises often make it into my exams. If you miss a class, please watch the recording in D2L as soon as possible, to keep up with the course.
- Please submit your assignments and exams in D2L (Assessments Dropbox) by 11:59 PM of the due dates. You may submit them a day or two late only if there are special circumstances (including mental health).
- I cannot accommodate requests for changes in the dates of scheduled examinations, nor pre-assignment of examinations, for whatever cause or reason.
- Because we will be recording classes (to be uploaded in D2L following each class), please keep your microphone muted unless you have a question, in which case please use the icon to put up your hand and/or unmute yourself, or else send a message in the chat.
- There is a term break (no classes) November 8–14

INTEGRITY AND CONDUCT

All members of the University community have a responsibility to familiarize themselves with the Statement on Principles of Conduct, and to comply with the University of Calgary Code of Conduct and Non-Academic Misconduct policy and procedures (available at: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>).

Academic misconduct

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:

- a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);
- b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
- c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
- d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted."

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may not be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (<https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf>) and requirements of the Copyright Act (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html>) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY (FOIP) ACT

Graded assignments will be retained by the Department for three months and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Final examinations will be kept for one calendar year and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Said material is exclusively available to the student and to the department staff requiring to examine it. Please see <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legalservices/foip> for complete information on the disclosure of personal records.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The student accommodation policy can be found at: <https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/access/prospective-students/academic-accommodations>.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities (<https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities.pdf>.)

Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their Instructor or the Department Head/Dean or to the designated contact person in their Faculty.
