REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS - (Additional readings will be made available on Blackboard)

- 1) Mooney, Peccei, LaBelle, et al. 2011. Language, Society and Power: An Introduction. 3rd Edition , Routledge.
- 2) Lippi -Green, Rosina. 2012. English with an Accent, 2nd Edition. Routledge. (***)Note that the 2012 edition of English with an Accent is required - the 1997 edition which I've used in past classes has been significantly updated, so the 1997 edition is out of date(***)

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Attendance - I will not take formal attendance, but I expect everyone to attend class and show up on time unless you have a good excuse. Attendance affects your Class Participation grade (see below).

Class Participation - This portion of the grade is based on class attendance, preparation and participation. Toward the end of the semester, I'll ask you to assign yourself a participation grade. We'll talk more about this when the time comes, but the general criteria I'd like for you to have in mind throughout the semester are: (1) Did you show up for class (both mentally & physically)? Did you show up late/leave early? Did you refrain from using electronic devices for non-class uses? (2) How prepared were you for each class? Did you do the readings in preparation for class? (3) Did you contribute to class discussions and group discussions?

Academic Accommodations	"Freedom of Information & Privacy" Act
It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Student Accessibility Centre, please contact their office at 403.220.8237. Students who have not registered with the Student Accessibility Services Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. You are also required to discuss your needs with your instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of this course.	Assignments and/or portfolios returned to a class: those not picked up by students will be retained by L.L.C. for three months from the date of posting of final grades, and then confidentially shredded.  Final Examinations: these will be retained by L.L.C. for one year from the end of the month in which the exam period falls, and then confidentially shredded.
