DESCRIPTION
Overview of some aspects of phonology not covered in detail in Phonology I, including stress patterns, rhythm, and foot structure, with particular emphasis on Optimality Theory, the dominant framework in modern phonological analysis.

Prerequisites: LING 303 (Phonology I)

OBJECTIVES
By the completion of this course, successful students should be able to:
- Demonstrate basic familiarity with the logic of linguistic reasoning and argumentation.
- Understand basic components of metrical phonology.
- Draw phonological generalizations related to syllable structure and foot structure.
- Understand and explain the fundamentals of Optimality Theory (OT).
- Understand and apply the logic of constraint ranking to construct simple OT analyses.
- Demonstrate basic familiarity with some aspects of phonological typology and variation.

DISTRIBUTION OF GRADES
- Assignments = 50% (2x25%)
- Class participation = 10%
- Research paper topic proposal & presentation = 10%
- Final paper = 30%

REQUIRED TEXTS
- No required text. Required course readings will be shared by D2L.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS
- ASSESSMENT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES
  This course has a page on D2L, titled LING 403 L01 - (Fall 2019) - Phonology II.
  The problem sets for this course are submitted electronically, through the D2L page, using either your own device, or one available through the university computer labs. It is the student’s responsibility to submit all course work, on time.
• LATE ASSESSMENTS
Late assessments are normally not accepted in this course. It is the student’s responsibility to submit all assignments on time. In extraordinary circumstances, where a student provides sufficient documentation of a legitimate and unavoidable reason for failing to submit multiple assignments, special consideration may be offered at the discretion of the instructor.

• ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION
Students are expected to attend every lecture, and to participate in class discussion. A portion of the course grade is based on active participation in class, in the form of asking questions or contributing relevant comments or observations.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:
   a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one’s own in an examination or test);
   b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
   c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
   d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

   While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.”

   Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student’s work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students’ examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION
All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf) and requirements of the copyright act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.
FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY (FOIP) ACT
Graded assignments will be retained by the Department for three months and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Final examinations will be kept for one calendar year and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Said material is exclusively available to the student and to the department staff requiring to examine it. Please see https://www.ucalgary.ca/legalservices/foip for complete information on the disclosure of personal records.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS
It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The student accommodation policy can be found at: https://www.ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities (https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities.pdf).

Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their Instructor or the Department Head/Dean or to the designated contact person in their Faculty.
