COURSE OUTLINE

INSTRUCTOR'S NAME: Gabriela Iturriza	COURSE COORDINATOR: Luis Torres
OFFICE LOCATION: CHC 202	OFFICE HOURS: Mondays and Wednesdays 2-2:30pm
TELEPHONE NUMBER: 403-210-7650
E-MAIL: gabriela.iturriza@ucalgary.ca

DESCRIPTION

A continuation of Spanish 201, this is a beginning level course primarily for students with prior knowledge of the language (one semester of university level Spanish or Spanish 30). This course is structured on the communicative approach to language learning and strong emphasis is placed on basic skills, namely: listening, speaking, reading, writing and cultural awareness. Prerequisites: Spanish 30, Spanish 201 or equivalent

OBJECTIVES

This course, measured as an integrated performance in speaking, listening, reading and writing, is intended to familiarize you with the structure of the Spanish language, and expose you to different Hispanic cultures, thus increasing your awareness of the Spanish-speaking world.

OUTCOMES

Outcomes in language courses are usually measured in terms of five basic skills:

Listening

You will be able to more completely understand the content of audio and video material that accompanies the textbook. Recognize and understand expressions from authentic media.

Speaking

Develop communicative abilities in order to function in simple survival situations, such as placing phone calls, ordering a meal, making travel arrangements, renting an apartment, explaining medical problems... Able to ask pertinent information questions.

Reading

Able to understand the main ideas of selected authentic material, (simple comic strips, ads, travel timetable, menus, periodical/web materials (in order to further develop reading skills as well as a more in depth comprehension about the topics. The student will be able to grasp the meaning of simple prose/verse, through various reading strategies such as skimming, identifying main ideas, using the dictionary...

Writing

Begin to create structured written material (in paragraphs) to describe and narrate past events grounded in personal experience, and express opinions, hopes and desires for the immediate future. Able to apply useful writing strategies such as the pastiche, organizing ideas in chronological order, avoiding redundancy.

Culture

Increase knowledge of significant differences between the varied and rich Hispanic culture and the learner's native culture, in behavior, attitudes and other aspects. Develop an awareness of language as an essential element of culture.

COURSE NOTES

The calendar and other information about this course posted on D2L (Desire to Learn) is not binding and can change according to the needs of the class.

The final grade for this course will be determined as follows:

Faculty of Arts

School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

2 Exams in class: 2 x 20% = 40%

Questions on listening comprehension, reading, writing, vocabulary, grammatical structures and culture can be part of these exams. They might include review questions from the previous chapters and all materials presented in class. Check the course schedule for specific dates for exams. Failure to attend the class on the day of the exam will result in an F, unless the student has a compelling reason to be absent. The student has to provide the instructor with appropriate documentation to justify his/her absence.

No books, notes or electronic devices (iPods, cell phones, Blackberries, etc.) are allowed. A small dictionary is permitted.

2 Compositions, in class. 2 x 10% = 20%

The grade assigned will take into consideration:

- Ideas and organization (use of linking words, fluidity...)
- Variety and correct use of the grammatical structures learned during the course
- Variety and correct use of the vocabulary learned during the course
- Spelling, accents, punctuation and general presentation regarding margins, neatness...

Check the course schedule for specific dates for the compositions. Failure to attend the class on the day of the exam will result in an F, unless the student has a compelling reason to be absent. The student has to provide the instructor with appropriate documentation to justify his/her absence.

No books, notes or electronic devices (iPods, cell phones, Blackberries, etc.) are allowed. A small dictionary is permitted.

Oral Assessment Exam. 10%

Attention. Your Instructor also has the option to implement an in-class group presentation (2 or 3 students) or a video submission (2 or 3 students) instead of the Oral Exam.

The oral exam option will take place at the instructor's office, during the last two weeks of class, outside of regular class time. It will normally be administered with 2 or 3 students present. Each group will be given a topic 15 minutes before the exam. Then each group will prepare the dialogue to be presented to the instructor for evaluation. Students are not allowed to read any prepared text during this exam. Finally, there will be an open conversation between the students and the instructor. Evaluations and grades will be assessed individually. Failure to show up for the final oral will result in an F.

The grade assigned will be based on:

- Interaction
- Variety and correct use of the grammatical structures learned in this course
- Variety and correct use of the vocabulary learned in this course
- Fluency

Class attendance and participation. 10%

To derive the utmost benefit from instruction, daily attendance is essential. Lack of attendance will adversely affect your overall performance and will have a negative impact on your final grade. The final grade calculation takes into account your attendance and active, positive contribution to classes.

The grade for attendance and participation will be assessed as follows:

A (Excellent)

Preparation: Always well prepared.*

Participation: Attentive and always volunteers; always tries to use Spanish with classmates and instructor; makes the most of each activity or exercise; shows real resourcefulness and imagination when using the language; responds to and engages classmates in a respectful manner; remains critical and open-minded toward target and native culture.

Faculty of Arts
School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

B (Very good)

Preparation: Usually well prepared.

Participation: Attentive and frequently volunteers; almost always tries to use Spanish with classmates and instructor; makes the most of each activity or exercise; completes activities and exercises with some imagination and resourcefulness; makes some effort to engage fellow; shows some development of cultural sensitivity.

C (Good)

Preparation: Adequately prepared.

Participation: Attentive and occasionally volunteers; sometimes needs to be reminded to use Spanish with instructor and classmates; responds and completes exercises with minimal imagination; does not engage classmates beyond the minimum requirements for an assignment.

D (Fair)

Preparation: Usually unprepared.

Participation: Makes little effort to participate or complete exercises; rarely tries to use Spanish with the instructor or classmates.

F (Poor)

Preparation: Always unprepared.

Participation: Makes no contribution to the class whatsoever.

*Well prepared= you completed all of your homework

 Focus on the class. Arriving late, having outside conversations, leaving the room, gathering materials before class is finished, allowing your cell phone to ring, texting, etc. shows a lack of common courtesy and is more disruptive and distracting than you may realize.

- Depending on their abilities, students are expected to spend an average of 2 hours of preparation for each class period.

Students are encouraged to communicate consistently in the target language and to attend the Centro de Tertulia (CHD 303) to practice.

LAB. Attendance and Participation: Spanish in action. 10%

The main objective of the lab is to practice Spanish by using several appropriate strategies.

Please, consider the following:

- The Assistant is responsible for 10% of your final grade. The grade is based on attendance and participation
- The Assistant will help guide the different activities and answer some questions
- The Assistant will observe and evaluate your performance during the different activities
- The lab is a great opportunity to practice some selected themes appropriate for conversation and other practice
- The success of the lab depends on your active participation, knowledge and personal interest
- Please, for your benefit, help create a positive and dynamic atmosphere in the lab.

The grade will be assessed as follows

- Only attended 1-6 labs = F, plus a % for participation
- 8 = D, plus or minus a % for or lack of participation
- 9 = C, plus or minus a % for or lack of participation
- 10 = B, plus or minus a % for or lack of participation
- 11 = A-, plus or minus a % for or lack of participation
- 12 -13 = A-, plus or minus a % for or lack of participation

The % will be determined by the Lab Assistant.

Faculty of Arts
School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

Hola Pass. 10% Requirements: Use your imagination, use props, communicate and have fun with Spanish... This exercise will help you to:

- Have a flexible interaction with a tutor and hear other Spanish accents, different from that of your instructors
- Develop confidence interacting with others through a presentation or a prepared dialogue
- Learn and practice through conversation or presentation, with an option to review and present again at a later date
- Use your knowledge of proper etiquette in conversation with a Spanish speaker and time management (there is limited time to make your presentation or present a dialogue)
- Get introduced to the Centro de Tertulia, a Centre dedicated to help students practice Spanish
- Get to know the resources available in the Centre and participate in their festivities
- Get to know other students interested in learning Spanish

Students, individually or in pairs, are required to attend the following two activities at the Spanish Centre (Centro de Tertulia Amelia Labbe). Other activities offered by the Spanish Centre are optional but students are highly encouraged to attend.

Activity 1. This activity will take place between the 5 and the 9 of February.

Activity 2. This activity will take place between the 19 and the 23 of March.

A week prior to these dates a list of possible time slots will be posted at the Spanish Centre, located in CHD 303. Students will choose the time more convenient for them and write their names on the list. If a student has to change the time, he/she should send an e-mail to XXX at: XXX and choose another time slot as soon as possible.

If students perform these activities successfully, the tutor will stamp the passport their instructor will have given them in class. If the tutor sees that they need to do more work to pass the activity, they will be permitted a few extra days to revise and they should make another appointment. The stamped passport should be submitted to the instructor by March 28, 2018.

Late assignments and missed tests policy:

- Attendance to class and to all exams and compositions is compulsory. A student who is absent from a test, exam, or oral presentation for legitimate reasons must notify the instructor as soon as possible so that an alternative arrangement can be made. The Instructor may request a Physician's/Counselor's note to confirm an absence for health reasons.
- Do not make travel arrangements for the dates when exams or compositions are scheduled.
- Missed tests, assignments and examinations with no legitimate reason will be given a grade of F.
- 5% of the grade will be deducted for each day a written assignment is late if there is no Physician's/Counselor's Statement form to justify the absence or the failure to complete it.

Electronic submission of assignments: No electronic submissions are allowed, only hard copies.

Use of electronic devices is not permitted, unless authorized by your Instructor.

The Department's drop-box, located in the foyer area of the third floor in Craigie Hall between blocks D and C, is available for depositing assignments and course work. The material placed in the drop-box will be collected and date-stamped at the beginning and at the end of the working day.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Faculty of Arts

School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:
 - a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);
 - b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
 - c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
 - d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted." Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

DISABILITIES AND ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services office at 403-210-6019 or access@ucalgary.ca; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors.
