COURSE NOTES

2 Exams (in class) 25% each

Exam 1: Repaso Capítulos 1, 2 y 3 (50 minutes)

Exam 2: Capítulos 4 y 5 (50 minutes)

The week before each Exam the instructor will post the format of the Exam on D2L. The instructor will explain each section, their percentage and the marking criteria.

Questions on listening comprehension, reading, writing, vocabulary, grammatical structures Lecturas-culture can be part of these exams. They might include review questions from the previous chapters and all materials presented in class.

Check the course schedule for specific dates for exams. Failure to attend the class on the day of the exam will result in an F, unless the student has a compelling reason to be absent.

No dictionaries, books, notes or electronic devices (iPods, cell phones, Blackberries, etc.) are allowed.

The online self-tests, Módulos, are a very good practice of the vocabulary, and grammar structures.

2 Compositions, in class. 2 x 10% = 20%

Composition 1: Includes vocabulary and grammar of Chapters 1, 2 and 3.

Possible topic: Una familia de inmigrantes/mis antepasados

Composition 2: Includes vocabulary and grammar of Chapters 4, 5 and 6.

Possible topic: Un incidente memorable

The written assignments are of at least two double spaced pages. They are marked out of 100 points:

- 50 points are for content (respect of the given topic, appropriate length, no repetitions, use of the vocabulary seen in class, creativity)
- 50 points are for proper language use (spelling, punctuation, grammatical structures, pronouns agreements, organization of the sentences and paragraphs, etc.)

Check the course schedule for specific dates for the compositions. Failure to attend the class on the day of the exam will result in an F, unless the student has a compelling reason to be absent.
No books, notes or electronic devices (iPods, cell phones, Blackberries, etc.) are allowed. A small dictionary is permitted.

Oral presentation. 10% All presentations will be completed in November. This activity will be based on one of the topics from the list posted on D2L. Your manner of delivery is your own. Your instructor will approve your activity beforehand. The oral presentation will be ten to fifteen minutes. It will be done in groups of three or four students. Each student will be evaluated individually. The purpose is to encourage students to speak in Spanish. No reading is allowed. Only three index cards with main points are permitted.

Marking rubrics: Content, grammar, pronunciation, varied vocabulary (25% each) a penalty of -10 points will be in effect if the whole or parts of presentation are read. Failure to show up for the oral presentation will result in an F, unless the student has a compelling reason to be absent. Please choose the date of your presentations the last week of September.

Class attendance and participation. 10%
To derive the utmost benefit from instruction, daily attendance is essential. Lack of attendance may adversely affect your overall performance and may have a negative impact on your final grade. The final grade calculation takes into account your attendance and active, positive contribution to classes.

Includes attendance and active, positive contributions to classes. The grade for this section will be granted as follows:
- Student participates regularly and always comes to class well prepared: 100%
- Generally, student participates and comes to class well prepared: 80%
- Sometimes student participates and comes to class prepared: 70%
- Student seldom participates or comes to class well prepared: 50%
- Student never participates or comes to class prepared: 0%

Well prepared means that, before coming to class, the student has done the homework assigned by the instructor (which can include learning some vocabulary and grammatical structures, reading and preparing specific texts, completing some activities) and that, in class, the student is able to demonstrate the knowledge acquired outside the classroom.

Focus on the class. Arriving late, having outside conversations, leaving the room, gathering materials before class is finished, allowing your cell phone to ring, texting, etc. shows a lack of common courtesy and is more disruptive and distracting than you may realize.

Depending on their abilities, students should spend an average of 2 hours of preparation for each class period.

Students are encouraged to communicate consistently on the target language and to attend the Centro de conversación (CHD 303) to practice.

LAB. Attendance and Participation: 10%
The main objective of the lab. is to practice Spanish by using several appropriate strategies. Please, consider the following:
- The Assistant, in consultation with the instructor, is responsible for 10% of your final grade. The grade is based on attendance and participation
- The Assistant will help guide the different activities and answer some questions
- The Assistant will observe and evaluate your performance during the different activities
- The lab. is a great opportunity to practice some selected themes appropriate for conversation and other practice
- The success of the lab. depends on your active participation, knowledge and personal interest
- Please, for your benefit, help create a positive and dynamic atmosphere in the lab.

The grade will be assessed as follows
- Only attended 1-6 labs. = F, plus a % for participation
- 8 = D, plus or minus a % for or lack of participation
- 9 = C, plus or minus a % for or lack of participation
- 10 = B, plus or minus a % for or lack of participation
- 11 = A-, plus or minus a % for or lack of participation
- 12-13 = A, plus or minus a % for or lack of participation

The % will be determined by the Lab. Assistant in consultation with the instructor.

Late assignments and missed tests policy:
- Attendance to class and to all exams and compositions is compulsory. A student who is absent from a test, exam, or oral presentation for legitimate reasons must notify the instructor as soon as possible so that an alternative arrangement can be made.
- Do not make travel arrangements for the dates when exams or compositions are scheduled.
- Missed tests, assignments and examinations with no legitimate reason will be given a grade of F.
- 5% of the grade will be deducted for each day a written assignment is late.
- Electronic submission of assignments: No electronic submissions are allowed, only hard copies.
- Use of electronic devices is not permitted, unless authorized by your Instructor.

The Department’s drop-box, located in the foyer area of the third floor in Craigie Hall between blocks D and C, is available for depositing assignments and course work. The material placed in the drop-box will be collected and date-stamped at the beginning and at the end of the working day.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT
1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:
   a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one’s own in an examination or test);
   b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
   c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
   d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student’s work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students’ examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.
